SUICIDE IN BRIMFIELD.—On Friday afternoon last, Mr. GEORGE FAIR, whose farm is situated in the extreme south-eastern part of Brimfield township, in this county, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn.

He left his house about half past four o'clock in the afternoon, and not returning at his accustomed time, a young man in his employ made search for him, and was shocked at finding his inanimate body suspended by a halter from a beam over the barn door.

Coroner GULLEY held an inquest on the body on Saturday, but no facts were elicited from the testimony, which could give any reason for the commission of the act. Mr. Fair was, as we understand, in comfortable circumstances—having a farm of 107 acres, with but little encumbrance upon it. He leaves a wife and three children.

SPELLING SCHOOLS.—The Committee appointed to select suitable premiums for the High, Grammar, Secondary and Primary departments of the schools, having performed that duty, are enabled to announce all the premiums that will be offered for the competition of the pupils, viz:

To the best speller in the Havana Union Schools, Webster's Unabridged Pictorial Dictionary.

To the best speller in the High School department, four volumes: Life in Spain, Fate of Sir John Franklin, Greeley's Overland Journey to California, Gold Folio by Timothy Titcomb.

To the best speller in the Grammar School department, four volumes: Les Causas Memoirs of Napoleon.

To the best speller in Secondary department, No. 1—two volumes: History of United States by Mary Howitt.

To the best speller in Secondary department, No. 2—two volumes: Fate of Sir John Franklin, Wirt's Life of Patrick Henry.

To the best speller in Primary department, No. 1—three volumes: Perils of Greatness, Retiring from Business, Debtor and Creditor.

To the best speller in Primary department, No. 2—three volumes: Hurrah for New England, Keeper's Travels; A Strike for Freedom.

It will be seen that the committee have changed the plan first proposed, and now offer a premium to each of the Secondary schools and each of the Primary schools—each of the schools now competing by itself, instead of competing by grades.

H. Y. Beebe, H. C. Ranney, Samuel D. Harris, Jr., Committee on Regulations.

EMBARCING IN THE CLOTHING BUSINESS.—We understand that J. T. GREEN, No. 3, Phoenix Block, who has, for some years, been furnishing coverings for the "dames of thought" of our citizens, designs keeping on hand, at an early day, a large assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which he will manufacture to order into garments suitable for "enveloping the frames" of the forefaded citizens. Mr. Green is in every way a worthy successor of Mr. Greenfielder, and we heartily wish him success in his new enterprise.

THE JAIL BREAKER HEARD FROM.—S. S. CONN, who escaped from the jail in this village last fall, by removing one of the large stones, was arrested in Memphis, Tenn., on Friday last. Conn, it will be remembered, was one of the gang of counterfeiters from Steubenville, and after his escape the Grand Jury of the U. S. Court failed to find a bill against him, which proceeding now appears as a ruse to enable the officers to re-capture him. He passed through Havana on Monday night, on his way to the Cleveland jail.

REVIVAL AT THE DISCIPLE CHURCH.—The interest in religion at the Disciple Church is still maintained. The labors of the pastor, Rev. Mr. FOUTZ, have been so far crowned with success as to cause many anxiously to enquire for his salvation. On Sunday afternoon, three persons submitted themselves to the requirements of the church by participating in the ordinance of baptism.

TO COLUMBUS.—On Wednesday last, LEMUEL M. PRICE, convicted at the last term of Court for the murder of ARANSON BALDWIN, of Aurora, was taken by Sheriff WILLIAMS to the Penitentiary at Columbus.

It is sad to think of an old man ending his days in so ignominious a manner, and sadder yet that the love of liquor caused this disgrace to come upon him.

VAUTROT'S JEWELRY STORE REMOVED.—Messrs. VAUTROT & BROTHER have recently removed their Jewelry Store from the room occupied by them in the Collins House, to No. 3 Phoenix Block. As in their old location, they can always be found ready and willing to attend to purchasers and customers.

To the Editor of the Portage Sentinel:

Sir:—It is not often that a political paper is called upon to give space to an article which has for its only object the giving of reasons in addition to those generally presented by the clergy for the decline of the usual interest in the church. But when the church is complained of for permitting "its missions to flag," and for not "supplying men and means for the ministry," and for not "checking the spread of slavery, much less abolishing it where it now exists"—if these charges be true, and we think they are—it becomes the duty of every person who has an abiding faith in the power of Christianity, when properly preached, to drive sin from the world, to assist in giving the true causes for the relative, if not absolute, decline of the church. The character of the members of a church for piety and devotion to the cause of Christ will, as a general thing, be a true reflection of that of their pastor. If he devotes his whole time and attention exclusively to the preaching of the Gospel, and does not stop aside now and then to indulge political sermons upon an unwilling congregation, or apologize for the raid of John Brown, and attempt to elevate him to an equality with Christ, in his devotion to a cause which he could not hope to accomplish without violating the laws of his country, he will find no difficulty for calling upon his brethren "to get off from the fence"; but, on the other hand, if he so far forgets himself, an advocate of Christ, as to become a mere stump speaker for a political party, and persists in season and out of season, in forcing unwilling ears to listen to his denunciations of the doctrines of another political party, declaring that "God is on the side of right, and that he will not let these monstrous schemes of iniquity be perpetrated on a free people," I say when he thus branches off from the duty which his Master called him to perform, it is only natural to suppose that the flock will follow the shepherd. And when events are determined, and the result is directly opposite what he predicted it would be, it is an inevitable necessity that confidence must be lost in him or his Master. And ever body will say, if he is so easily mistaken about things of this world, how can we trust in him when discoursing of things of the next? The fact is, this kind of outside operations brings preachers down to a level with other politicians, and their cause on a level with a political party with its thousand miserable tricks. When preachers neglect the sublime moral laws of God, and spend their time and his, hypocritically finding fault with the municipal regulations of the country in which they live, they virtually declare that they have more confidence in our civil laws to produce a reformation in a people, than in the teachings and example of Christ himself. In brief, Mr. Preacher, these are some of the reasons why our "missions flag," and why "there are no recruits to supply vacancies in the ministry for want of men and means." J.

Extraordinary Affair at the New-Burgh Lunatic Asylum.

The Cleveland Herald of Monday evening has the following singular story of the escape of one of the inmates from the New-Burgh Asylum:

Among the inmates of the Northern Ohio Lunatic Asylum is a person named Wheedon, once a highly respectable citizen in good circumstances, and said to have been a member of the former coal firm of I. C. Pendleton & Co. He has been in the Asylum for some time.

For some time past he has manifested a strong disposition to escape, and the utmost care and vigilance has been exercised to frustrate his designs, but not always with success. Before being placed in the sleeping room at night he has been always stripped and carefully examined to prevent the secreting of any instrument, and all of his clothes but his shirt, pants and stockings taken away. In spite of these precautions, he has succeeded three times within a few days in escaping from his room.

A few days since he took a set of false teeth out of his mouth, and by constant work contrived with them to saw a hole through the floor of his chamber, making a hole sufficient to admit of his dropping through into another part of the house, and then escaping. He was traced and caught at the house of Mr. Pendleton, on Euclid street.

A few days since he secreted a pin and with that exceedingly unlikely instrument, managed to pick the lock of his door and escaped into the hall where he was fortunately arrested. He then stated that a pin was of more value than $10,000 when he wished to escape from a room.

Last Saturday night he was carefully examined, as usual, before being placed in his room, but succeeded in securing a small brass ring, split in one part, in his hair.

On being locked up for night, he set to work, and with the ring he cut through the window sash and shutter, so as to enable him to remove them from the window. He then took the coverlid of the bed, and tore it into strips, with which he made a rope reaching nearly to the ground, a distance of some twenty-five or thirty feet. Some of the cotton batting with which the coverlid was padded, he placed in his stockings to protect his feet, as he had no shoes. Then dressing himself in shirt, trousers and stockings, he slid down the rope and escaped.

Striking across the country to Eight Mile Lock, he then took the towpath of the canal and walked down to University Heights, where he arrived yesterday afternoon. The officers of the Asylum were on his track, and with Officer McIlrath, of the Police, came on him yesterday (Sunday) afternoon. He was very quiet when arrested, and spoke freely of his escape, and made no resistance to being taken back to the Asylum. We question whether this series of extraordinary escapes can be well matched.

Indian Affairs in Arizona.

We take the following from the Mesilla letter to the St. Louis Republican, dated on the 31st instant.

The Pinal scout has returned to the Rio Grande. These troops were ordered out for a winter campaign without transportation or forage, and that, too, in a country most destitute of everything; and the only wonder is, that they even returned. Too much credit can not be given to the officers of the scout, for had not the utmost caution been exercised not an animal would ever have returned. As it is, however, the scout has been a successful one. Twenty Indians have been killed, fifty-three prisoners taken, some two hundred and fifty horses and mules captured, and several villages burned; and this, too, without the loss of a single man. What the result will be in the end, it is hard to say. From the Rio Grande to the Colorado the country is left unprotected, and most likely the Overland Mail Company will be the sufferers, for vengeance these Indians will have for the killed of their tribe. Some troops ought to have been left in the country for the protection of the mail stations; but, as this has not been done, the consequences must be taken.

The Minbre Indians have commenced their depredations again. Settlers in the vicinity of the "Hot Springs" have been driven to the Rio Grande for protection, and many persons residing near the copper mines have sent their families to also. Four Mexicans were killed on the night of the 27th, at Amoles, a little town some fifteen miles from the Mesilla, and a quantity of stock stolen by these same Indians.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Its wonderful effects and consequent popularity, perhaps no article in the history of the Materia Medica, ever required the same patronage, was subjected to the same number of severe and different tests, and met with as full success as the Mustang Liniment, has had in the treatment of all external Wounds, Cuts, Scalds, Sprains, Bruises, or Eruptions on Man or Beast. It is so far a medicine of surprising virtue, that physicians are compelled to prescribe it, and from some remarkable cures of Chronic and Disturbed Rheumatism, it has naturally attracted much attention from the scientific minds of the age. No family can afford to be without a bottle of the Mustang Liniment in the house. BARNES & PARK, Proprietors, N. Y.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.—We submit the following to sufferers without comment.

Nessee, Ben, Jr., & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. I have been afflicted with the Chronic Rheumatism, unable to walk for six years, and have used all the external and internal remedies both from doctors and quacks, also, all the patent medicines recommended for this disease, also spent six months in Arkansas at the Hot Springs, all to no purpose. As the old saying is that "drowning men catch at straws," I was recommended to try your Bitters, and must confess that it is the only remedy which has given me relief. I am now on my third bottle. I am no much better, but not able to walk, I was able to attend church last Sunday, for the first time in six years. My general health is also much improved. My appetite was never better. My object in writing you (as my resources are nearly exhausted by my long confinement) is to know if I can obtain it for less than one dollar per bottle, which I have to pay for. I consider "Barnes' Bitters" the most valuable remedy for my complaint that was ever offered to the public. I have been afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism, 11 1/2 years, June 7th, 1899.

P. R. MYERS, Jr., Havana, of your city, is acquainted with me and my case.

Ben, Jr., BEN, JR., JR., & CO., Sole Proprietors, 27 Wood street, Pittsburgh, March 7, 1899.

MARRIED.

In this place, March 1st, by the Rev. C. C. Poole, Mr. JAY LAW, of Brimfield, to Miss MARANDA CUTLER, of Ravenna.

DIED.

In Shalersville, Feb. 16th, Mr. JOSEPH LANGWORTHY, aged 80 years.

The deceased was one of the early settlers of that township. He was beloved and esteemed by all who knew him. The last seven years, which, to him, were years of great loneliness, he spent in the family of his son-in-law, Mr. Sterling Smith, where he received the utmost kindness and care. So serene was his departure that none in the room were conscious of the change till he had passed away. He died as he had lived, strong in "faith in the Son of God."

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. [Cord.]

In Brandon, Wis., on the 20th ult., ASHER ELY, Esq., aged 82 years.

The deceased was born in West Springfield, Mass., and emigrated to Deerfield, in this county, in 1790. He was a member of the Congregational Church, and was a devoted husband and father. He died at his residence in Brandon, Wis., on the 20th ult., at the age of 82 years.
